Dedication

TO OUR PARENTS AND GUARDIANS WHO HAVE PATIENTLY AND PROUDLY LOOKED FORWARD TO OUR GRADUATION, AND ARE A COMBINATION OF ALL THE PEOPLE DESCRIBED BY ANDREW CARNEGIE IN THE FOLLOWING QUOTATION:

"Give me the life of the boy whose mother is nurse, seamstress, washerwoman, cook, teacher, angel and saint all in one, and whose father is guide, examplar, and friend . . . . . These are the boys who are born to the best fortune."

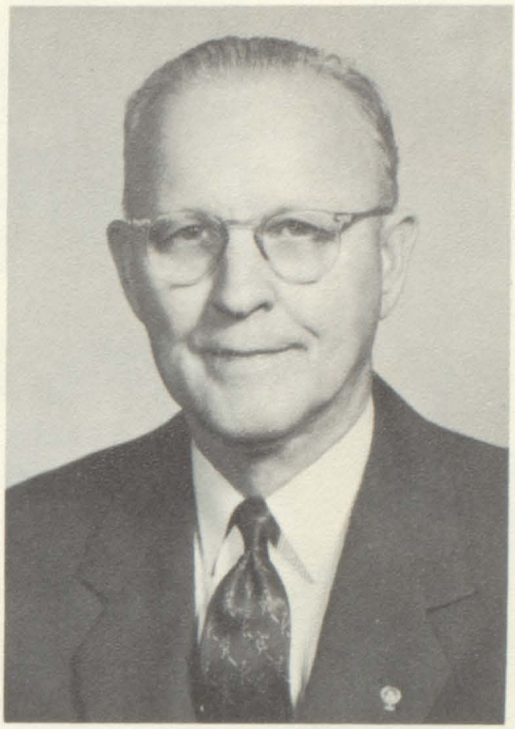

--Andrew Carnegie--

WE GRATEFULLY DEDICATE THIS BOOK

DOLORES ZAHN

David Wilson was chosen Valedictorian of the Class of 1956. He maintained a straight "A" (4.0) average throughout his four years of high school.

Dolores Zahn was chosen Salutatorian. She has a 3.94 average for the four years.

In addition to maintaining such a high academic rating, both have been active in school functions. They have won many awards in literature, speech, dramatics, and music. The class salutes these two outstanding students.

Class Poem

Roberta Flint

The golden days of youth will pass,
And vanish like the night.
But Ypsi years still cast a glow,
That never fades from sight.

To Ypsi High and our loyal class,
We sing of love and truth.
To Ypsi High and Fifty-six,
And our golden days of youth.

Soon we'll wear that cap and gown,
And leave those years in the past.
The memories of all good times
Within our hearts will last.

In time to come, it's true
On our separate ways we'll go.
Sadly down the river of life
Far from the friends we know.

But let's not forget our happy class
And all the fun we've had.
Our Senior play, a big success,
And the day we received our fad.

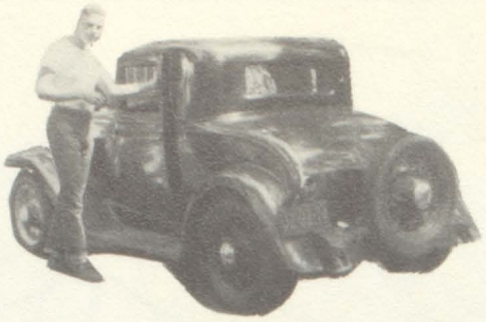

The Senior Farewell and the picnic, too,
Memories I know you haven't forgot.
The way we cheered our wrestling team,
And helped them to the top.

I could go on the whole night through
And tell of the many happy days.
Plus the hard work in studies, too,
That will help us in many ways.

To our adviser, Mr. Ritchie,
And our loyal faculty, too,
"Fifty-six" thanks, and appreciates
The knowledge we gained from you.

With saddened hearts and dewy eyes
We now bid a sweet farewell.
The world before us brightly lies;
Yet at Ypsi High, our memories dwell.

Class History

Charles Marshall

The history of the class of 1956 begins in the fall of 1952. Our Freshman year is a year when a group of childish youngsters work and play together to mold the friendships and associations that are the class of 1956. It is our first year and we prove to be a valuable addition to Ypsilanti High School by taking part in the many school activities. Many of us join clubs and others participate in radio and dramatics. Sixteen girls are chosen to be in the Girls Drum & Bugle Corps. Some of the boys try their hand at sports and win athletic awards.

Our Sophomore year comes and we return to school more confident and mature. We are welcomed into the social life of the school by the Sophomore reception. We continue where we left off in activities and once again we make a fine showing. Throughout the year we participate in many events. Our boys again prove their prowess in athletics and many earn awards. Ann Mitchell had the lead in the all-school play, "Stag Line." She and Jerry Keene were initiated into the National Thespian Society. Ann also attended the national Thespian convention at Indiana University that year. David Wilson placed first and Marjorie Jokubaitis placed second in the Declamations contest. Duane Bastian and Gene Doering are elected to lead the Student Council the following year.

Time waits for no one and the class progresses. We find our time more valuable, being Juniors, so we make the most of it. Mr. Halbert is our class adviser and Richard Rhinehart is elected to lead our class. This year Nancy Fry, Charles Marshall, Ann Mitchell, Connie Mitchell, Judy Mudge, Judy Obermeyer, Sharleen Seamans, David Wilson, and Dolores Zahn are chosen for the National Honor Society. In speech activities Marjorie Jokubaitis won the "I Speak for Democracy" contest; Judy Obermeyer placed second in the same contest; Sharleen Seamans won the Extemporaneous Speaking contest. In the literary field David Wilson won the humorous essay contest and Eileen Schmaus placed second in the serious essay contest. Mary Ann Hudgens placed second in the essay contest. Prudence Brainard, Dave Curtis, and Marlene Edwards represent Peru in the UN Mock Assembly at Hillsdale College. Jerry Keene and Charles Marshall represent Ypsilanti High School at Boys' State and Wilma Johnson represents us at Girls' State. Walter Pitts and Warren Dawson take first, Duane Bastian, second, and Bobby Stout, fourth, in their respective weights to help the wrestling team place second in the State. The class is well represented in dramatics again. Judy Mudge and Bill Kelsch had leading roles in the all-school play, "The Little Dog Laughed," and Kathryn Wardrop and Marian Kerbyson also had roles in the play. These four plus Phyllis Ridenour, Harry Short, Lou Ann Graubner, and Sam Johnson were initiated into the Thespians. The outstanding social event of the year was the annual J-Hop.

In the fall of 1955 we find ourselves embarking on our last and most eventful year. With Mr. Paul Ritchie at the helm and Richard Rhinehart, Bobby Stout, Donna Dunlap, and Barbara Fedor as his willing crew, we settle to our task of making the Class of 1956 one long to be remembered in the history of Ypsilanti High School. Warren Dawson and DuAnne Dixon were elected vice-president and secretary of the Student Council. DuAnne Dixon is selected as the D.A.R. good citizen and is the Drum Majorette of the Girls Drum & Bugle Corps. Marjorie Jokubaitis is editor of the "Sem" and Kathryn Wardrop heads the Yearbook Staff. Many of our class members become members of the Quill & Scroll Society due to their fine work on the paper and yearbook. Fifteen new members were elected to the National Honor Society. Dave Wilson, Duane Bastian, Charles Marshall, Walter, Pitts, Warren Dawson, Johnnie McCain, Howard Grayson, and Ralph Harper are captains of their various athletic teams. In wrestling Walter Pitts repeats as state champ at 165; Warren Dawson, heavyweight, places second; Bobby Stout, Duane Bastian, and Charles Marshall take third at 138, 145, and 175 respectively; and Buford Harmon places fourth at 120 as the wrestling team captures a coveted State Championship. The school starts membership in the newly formed Huron-Rouge Valley Conference with the start of the basketball season.

Under the splendid direction of Miss Madge Iseminger, the Senior play, "Girl Crazy," is a great success. Outstanding performances are registered by Dave Wilson, Sam Johnson, Judy Mudge, Marjorie Jokubaitis, Richard Rhinehart, and Gene Doering. Lynda McMinn and Barbara Fedor contributed greatly to the success of the all-school play, "Our Hearts Were Young and Gay." Jerry Keene and Judy Mudge win the "Best Thespian" awards. Thirty-four seniors are initiated into the National Thespian Society. Lynda McMinn won the Interpretative Reading contest and placed second in the District; Judy Mudge placed second in the District Humorous Declamation; and Sharleen Seamans and Richard Jacobson tied for first in the Extemporaneous Speaking contest. Marlene Edwards and Richard Jacobson represent Thailand at the Mock UN Assembly at Hillsdale. Theresa McCrumb won the gold medal in G.A.C., the highest award given.

We, the Class of 1956, are about to step out into life and write another page in our bright history. We hope that the fine record we have amassed will serve as a mark for other classes. We hope, too, that the part we have played will be a cherished and remembered part of the traditions and records of Ypsilanti High School.

Prophecy

Marjorie Jokubaitis Sam Johnson

S: The time is 2:00 p.m.; the place is the Huron Hotel Planet Room; the date is June 8, 1976. I had just stopped in for my afternoon coffee break where I met Marjorie Jokubaitis, who is now married and the mother of octuplets. As people often do, we started reminiscing about the good old days, our days at Ypsi High School.

S: Yep, things sure have changed! Instead of the headlines reading transcontinental airliner, they are now screaming regular rocket trips to Mars! Yep, times sure have changed.

M: It seems like only yesterday that we were happy, carefree seniors--by the way, what's MARY GRAY doing today?

S: She had better be home doing the wash! But you know, this town sure has changed--no pool halls, no bars, and all because of our hard working mayor, BILL KELSCH.

M: PAT BROWER is postmaster now. Seems like those speeches he made in public speaking got him somewhere after all.

S: And JOHN HEMPHILL is truant officer now--Yep, things sure have changed!

M: And PETE ROOPAS is admiral of the space fleet.

S: And NANCY FRY is dog catcher! It looks like CHARLES MARSHALL'S new business is doing okay.

M: Yes, Marshall's Beauty Salon is really a big hit--especially with their new hair stylist, WALTER PITTS, and their manicurist, MERLE PRATT.

S: Curly Crampton's Barber Shop is doing okay, too. I always knew FRANK CRAMPTON would get ahead in this world.

M: Especially with his new barbers, FRIEDA GRAMS, BARBARA HUDSON, and SIDNEY LAMBERT.

S: It looks like TOM DUMBACK and JERRY BOYD really started something worth while, Daredevil Driving School.

M: Well, I hadn't even heard of it! Does anyone work there that I know?

S: Why sure, LOU ANN GRAUBNER is the head instructor. PETE GRAHAM teaches a special course on "How to talk your way out of a $27 ticket." Of course, DANNY WRIGHT is their big wheel after winning the Indianapolis Speedway in his '52 Ford. TED HANLON is located in the antique department. It seems his dad still won't let him trade his '48 Ford.

M: Did you see MATTIE JACKSON JOHNSON, WILMA JOHNSON, and PAT JONES wrestling on TV last night? Imagine them giving free exhibitions for such a worthy cause as the four-headed orphans fund.

S: Some of the kids have really made something worth while of themselves. CARROL LAMBERT, DORIS QUARTERMAN, and RUTH ENGEL are missionaries and are now on their way to Zambezi.

M: Talking about missionaries, BUFORD HARMON and BOBBY STOUT are great preacher now. They just published their religious work entitled "Our Mistakes." It comes in 36 leather bound volumes.

S: A few of the kids have moved out of state. BEVERLY DOWNS married some big Texas oilman named Ups. JOHNNIE McCAIN is captain of the Globetrotters. PAT SEATON is raising horses is Arizona. DAVID TOWLER and MARTIN PHILLIPP just returned from the Moon. And TERRY WHITFIELD is a traveling salesman, but I hear he's decided to settle down on a farm.

M: Of course some of the grads have really surprised us with their hidden talents. Take the floor show here, for instance. FRED SCHWALL and PRUDY BRAINARD and their wild Kangaroo Act and WARREN "Libby" DAWSON at the piano accompanied by EILEEN SCHMAUS on her Terrible Tuba. Say, isn't that DAVID WILSON over there?

S: Yes, he's bus boy here. Right now he is having a terrible time writing a thesis for his professor, JERRY KEENE, who is mighty rough on Dave. Yes, Dave is still going to school.

M: Quite a few of the kids have gone into the teaching profession. THERESA McCRUMB and MARY LEE KING are Phy. Ed. teachers. EVELYN FELLER is teaching Latin. They must have been inspired by the fine examples of our teachers.

S: Have you stopped by GENE DOERING'S dance studio lately? He's featuring a new dance called the Chubby-Chubby! LANNY DAVIS, FRANCIS KIMBALL, and DUANE MILLER are his instructors.

M: Say, that looks like LYNDA McMINN across the street---

S: What in the world is she doing?

M: Oh, she's just jumping over that fire hydrant--I see she's still pulling some of her high school tricks.

S: There's HARRY SHORT following her with all their little Shorts. He sure looks different with most of his hair gone. Did you hear the new record his group put out?

M: No. What group?

S: Why, he, MARY SZEKERES, and BOBBIE FLINT are the Crimson Top Trio. Their brand new release, written by CONNIE MITCHELL and JAMES WAITE, is entitled, "Red Flannel Slippers."

M: Hand me that newspaper, will you? Oh, it's the Weekly Wonder. So many of our old classmates work on it. I just adore DOLORES ZAHN'S editorials. But one column I never miss is JESSE FOLEY'S Fashions for Women!

S: SHIRLEY GIBSON has written a good article about JIM DAVIS breaking the 16-day sleep record. My girls never miss MARIAN KERBYSON'S "Advice to Teenagers" or JUDY OBERMEYER'S Lovelorn section.

M: My little angels think GORDON MOTION'S cartoons are the funniest things. Say, did you read JAMES WOOTEN'S poem, "Oh Broken Heart of My Loved One Dear"?

S: Yes, isn't it touching. Here's an announcement of the opening of the Careful Cuties Cab Company owned and operated by MILDRED CURTIS, JOAN DOZIER BROWN, and ELIZABETH FOSTER.

M: Read this Ups and Downs column. GERALD GRAGG just set a new world's elevator record of 2,793 trips from the first floor to the eighty-fourth floor in succession.

S: It says in the theatrical section that BOB BORKE'S new operetta, "Speedo," is opening Friday night. Why, good old RICHARD RHINEHART sings the lead song, "Mimi."

M: It says JUDY MUDGE is the female lead. The critics say there is one song she sings with deep feeling, "Danny Boy." ANN MITCHELL designs all Judy's costumes. Her latest creation is entitled "almost nothing."

S: I hear MIKE BROWN has given us his job at the Farm Bureau to take care of their children. I guess they decided one working in the family is enough. By the way, BOB HAMMONS is the director of the play.

M: Did you read this sport's article by DUANE BASTIAN about KATHRYN LOUNSBERRY running her one-minute mile?

S: He also wrote this article about SUZANNE ROBINETT swimming the length of the Huron River four times under water. She was ably assisted by her coach, PHYLLIS ADAMS. The time-keeper was RUDY WRIGHT while DELORISE ARTHUR stood by as her life-guard.

M: Well, there's CARMELLA GRECO.

S: What's she got her arm in a sling for?

M: She's had to wear a sling ever since her bank president husband gave her that new diamond ring.

S: Did you read this medical article under JOE "Flash" CARPENTER'S byline? It's about Doctor EDWARD STRAYHORN'S operation on JUANITA CALHOUN. It seems Juanita took MARLENE EDWARDS lecture on relaxation too much to heart. Trouble is she tried to relax on a golf course and three golfers mistook her mouth for the 16th hole. Interns that assisted with the operation were BETTY SPECHT and BETTY JO MAY.

M: It's funny how many of the girls turned out to be successful authors. I was in WANDA ALDRIDGE'S Bookworm Shop when I noticed a few of their books on display. Those that I saw were: DOROTHY KNOX'S best seller, "I Cried Yesterday"; SUE IRWIN'S tear jerker, "Girls, Never Give Up"; GWENDOLYN THOMAS', "Lost in the Subway," a thrilling mystery. Also BARBARA FEDOR'S comical, "My Life as a Butterfly," and DUANNE DIXON'S factual, "Navy Wife." MELVA CHARLES has written a great love classic, "Hands Across the Meat Counter."

S: A lot of the kids have gone into business for themselves. Take RALPH and ROGER HARPER, for example, with their Mosquito Net Clothing for Eskimos. EDWIN ADAMS and PHILIP ROFF are their--You make it, We'll sell it--salesmen. JOHN STAFFORD and MAXINE BOND are their chief testers. At least they were until they caught triple pneumonia. Their models are ROSEMARY OTTO--bermudas, YVONNE KOPE--long underwear, BETTY SIMPSON--bathing suits, and YVONNE HEARNS--evening gowns.

M: Hey, look! HOWARD GRAYSON just walked in the door. He sure is man-about-town since he was elected president of the national organization of the El Dukes.

S: Talk about being happy! I don't think anyone is as happy as the "Barefoot Six Dance Band."

M: They're really creating a sensation, aren't they?

S: Yes, with LOIS SNYDER on the "Juice" Harp and GLENDA WARREN on the B-flat scrub-board.

M: DORIS HARRISON and her washtub solo is what tickles me. But MARY TAYLOR really goes to town on her little brown jug.

S: ANNA JEAN MARTIN makes a swell vocalist, especially when she yodels "Blue Moon." What really puts the show over is when SHIRLEY STETLER comes out and plays "Jingle Bells" on her musical bottles.

M: I hear they recently made a hit at EMILY LITMAN and KATHRYN WARDROP'S Resort for Retired Criminals.

S: Isn't the Bobsy Nursery located near there? It's right around the corner, isn't it?

M: Yes, and ROBERT BARNES is Chief Pablum Pitcher, BOB BECKER is in the bottle washing department, and poor BOB SHAW, you know which part of the business he got. So far they can only accommodate MYRNA CLARK, CAROLYN CONRAD, and MARTHA FULLERTON'S children. But, after all, that is 47.

S: Say, do you remember MARY ANN HUDGENS, GENE BRITT, and BILL FISHBECK?

M: Sure, I remember them.

S: Well, they're millionaires now. They made their fortunes by raising Pizza Plants. It really looks like the farm business is paying off for TOM JOHNSON and DONNA DUNLAP. They are the only people I know who own a souped-up Cadillac convertible tractor.

M: Speaking of making a fortune, I hear CHARLES DICUS is applying for bankruptcy papers for his Gold Plated Bird Bath Factory. It seems that their head salesman, GRADY GRAHAM, better known as the rich birds friend, just wasn't up to par last year. He only sold 8,000.

S: Talking about bankruptcy reminds me of THELMA TINDALL and GERALDINE RAINES' mink farm. It seems that all their minks went bald.

M: But MARV CHAPMAN is really making himself a mint since he invented his new switchless car. It runs strictly on this principle--just twist a few wires together. He got his experience during his senior year. His old test drivers, SHARLEEN SEAMANS, KAT STREICHER, BETTY MIDDLETON are now in the hospital suffering from concussion, broken bones, fractures, and other minor injuries. Marv's head mechanics are none other than SHIRLEY BROWN and MARY FRAZIER.

S: You know, it's surprising how many tourists are coming to town now since MARIANNE CUMMINGS and NEATREAL FRIERSON started those cruises up and down the scenic Huron River. DICK BORTZ and JACK GEARHART are head guides because of their great knowledge of the river.

M: You heard, didn't you, that JOAN JAHNCKE, MARIE SAMWORTH, and BARBARA KRAMER were awarded the Nobel Prize? It seems they wrote a story entitled, "What Senior Economics Class Can Do For You!"

S: And I heard CAROL HANLON, PHYLLIS RIDENOUR, and JOAN HEWITT wrote its sequel entitled, "OH, YEAH?"

M: Imagine courageous WINONA REMSBERG and PAULINE STRUBLE crusading all over the world giving speeches on "This Younger Generation is Going to the Dogs."

S: And I think CAROLE VAN GIESON and SANDRA HARDEN have come up with the smartest little invention, "Presto," the pocket-sized cigarette roller for poor chain smokers.

M: You know, it has been a long time, but some of the kids haven't changed a bit. Like, remember last year when RICHARD JACOBSON and BOB HOLDING scaled the side of the Grand Canyon just to write their names!

S: Right! But I think the boys who have made the biggest success of their lives and picked the most useful careers are DAVID and BILL CURTIS. Yep, their corporation is really paying off--The Curtis and Curtis Careful Coffin Coverers. Their slogan is "No Job Too Big." Well, Margie, I don't guess you're in a hurry to get back to your job since you're president of "Aunt Margie's Pickle Factory," and I better be going back to my job at the Chicken Pluckin' Plant--I've plucked more chickens!!

S: But seriously, in closing this 1956 Class Prophecy, we'd like to say we expect great things from our fellow classmates because we truly believe that the Class of '56 contains some of the greatest people in the world.

Giftatory

DuAnne Dixon Richard Jacobson

We hope these gifts will be received in the spirit in which they are given, and that in the years to come they will recall happy memories of Ypsi High and the Class of 1956.

BARBARA FEDOR--$100 insurance policy. This is for that tender nose of yours.
GERALD GRAGG--ink. Maybe this will help you in your future years as a printer.
KATHRYN LOUNSBERRY--canvas. This is to remind you of all the scenery you've painted in high school.
BILL CURTIS--jet plane. Now you can have one of your own.
NANCY FRY--crying towel. We know you'll be needing this at Commencement.
RICHARD RHINEHART--dog bone. This is to remind you of that marvelous scene you had in the senior play.
BETTIE SIMPSON--sunbeam. This is for your radiant smile.
SIDNEY LAMBERT--house. Here is one house you won't have to design and build.
WINONA REMSBERG and CAROLE VAN GIESON--calendar. This is to keep track of all the school you missed this year.
FRED SCHWALL--pair of taps. You've probably worn out your other ones by now.
ANNA JEAN MARTIN--Southern charm. Something for a very charming Southern girl.
JESSE FOLEY--$23. This is to replace the money you paid at the station for your merriment.
DORIS HARRISON--grass skirt. Maybe this will help you get to Hawaii after graduation.
DUANE MILLER--hammer and nails. Try being a carpenter. You've been a "Miller" too long.
CAROL HANLON--300 bowling score. At least you can say you've had one.
PETE GRAHAM--a citation for good driving. We know this will be the only one you'll ever receive.
DOLORES ZAHN--dictionary. Maybe Webster can use some of your help.
FRANCIS KIMBALL--French book. This is to go with that nickname of yours. Maybe it will help in your travels, too.
MARIE SAMWORTH, JOAN JAHNCKE, BARBARA KRAMER, BETTY SPECHT, ANN MITCHELL, MARTHA FULLERTON--typewriter ribbons. This is to remind you of your jobs as office girls. May they also help you in the future.

GORDON MOTION--stop sign. You've been in motion too long.
MELVA CHARLES--baseball bat. We heard you were very interested in professional baseball or is it one of the players.
GENE BRITT--cornet. Here is one that you can always keep.
NEATREAL FRIERSON--duck food. Here is something to help keep your "Duck" well fed.
PETE ROOPAS--mortar and pestle. Maybe this will help you in Pharmacist School.
JUANITA CALHOUN--card with name Bob on it. Add this to your collection.
GRADY GRAHAM--toothpicks. We don't want you to run out of these.
MARLENE EDWARDS--clock with hands at 4:00 a.m. Hope you'll get in earlier next week.
DAVID CURTIS--horn. Here is one that won't be so heavy.
SANDRA HARDEN--salt and pepper shakers. Add these to your collection. May they always remind you of the Class of '56.
BOB SHAW--squirt gun. I bet you don't have one like this in your collection.
LYNDA McMINN--skirt. This is to replace the one you ripped when you tried to jump the fire hydrant in front of school.
JOHNNIE McCAIN--doll. Here is the ideal girl you've been looking for.
EMILY LITMAN--cow. This is what really belongs in a cow pasture. Somewhere you were misinformed.
DAVID TOWLER--Ford. Why not come down with the rest of us?
BARBARA HUDSON and FRIEDA GRAMS--rolling pins. Maybe these will help you keep order.
WALTER PITTS--moon. This illustrates the great heights you have reached.
YVONNE KOPE and CARROL LAMBERT--wagon. Keep on rolling together. You've been such good friends for so long.
RUDY WRIGHT--paper with an "O." You've been "Wright" all your life so now it's time for a change.
TOM JOHNSON--Jeep. Maybe this one will run. I know it has windows anyway.
PHYLLIS RIDENOUR--Forget-me-not seeds. Plant these in the garden you'll soon have and always remember the Class of '56.
JAMES WAITE--piano. Try banging the "Russian Picnic" on this.
SHARLEEN SEAMANS--book. I hope this will remind you of all the work you did on the yearbook and the many hours spent in the library.
JACK GEARHART--cue chalk. Maybe you should get a diploma from the pool hall instead of YHS.
THELMA TINDALL--toy car. Maybe you can practice driving this.
TOM DUMBACH--balloon. Use some of your hot air on this.
CONNIE MITCHELL--megaphone. Try using this so we can hear you.
JAMES WOOTEN--dictionary. How about learning some new words for your poetry?
MARIAN KERBYSON--paint brush. This is just a symbol of the great job you did as art editor of the yearbook.
HARRY SHORT--sun tan oil. You won't get sunburned under your sunlamp if you use this.
THERESA McCRUMB--blue ribbon. The sportswoman of the class should have this.
MERLE PRATT--box of dates. We don't want you to leave without one.
PAT SEATON--bag of oats. We hear you like horses.
BOB BECKER--True Romance magazine. This may pacify you since you are loveless.
MARY LEE KING, PHYLLIS ADAMS, SHIRLEY BROWN, and CAROLYN CONRAD--mirrors. This is to reflect your sweet personality.
DUANE BASTIAN--ear plugs. Maybe these will help when you are on a date.
ROBERTA FLINT--book of nursery rhymes. You did a swell job on the Class Poem but this might help in the future.
HOWARD GRAYSON--star. Maybe you can hang on to this one.
MARY ANN HUDGENS and ELIZABETH FOSTER--four-leaf clover. May you have the best of luck throughout the years.
CHARLES MARSHALL--onion. This is to chase away all the girls who flock around you all the time.
WARREN DAWSON--reducing pills. Try being tiny instead of a tank.
CARMELLA GRECO--lemon. You've been sweet too long.
DICK BORTZ and MARTIN PHILLIPP--water wings. Maybe these will help you in your future swimming.
DORIS QUARTERMAN--pencil and paper. Write a book on "how to be engaged to one boy and go steady with two others at the same time."
JERRY KEENE--stool. This is to remind you of a similar stool which you left at Dixon's cottage.
MYRNA CLARK, WILMA JOHNSON, JOAN D. BROWN, and YVONNE HEARNS--receipt books. We know you have the receipt for happiness but with these you can find the way to a man's heart.
TED HANLON--reservation. Here is a lifetime reservation for the Hotel "Stetler."
SUZANNE ROBINETT--light bulb. This will light your way to a bright future.
LANNY DAVIS--telegram from Charles Atlas. This telegram reads, "How did you get that build without my help?"
GERALDINE RAINES--glasses. May you'll be able to see through these.

BILL KELSCH--scissors. What else can we give to the class cut-up?
KATHRYN WARDROP--book on "How to overcome Color Blindness." Maybe this will help you distinguish between red and green on traffic, lights.
LOIS SNYDER--parking ticket. It says it is issued by Grandma Moses.
DAN WRIGHT--gear from a Ford transmission. We're sure you'll be able to use this if you keep driving as you now do.
ROSEMARY OTTO--wrecker. We hear you have been having car trouble these days.
JUDY OBERMEYER--mouse trap. Maybe this will help you trap a man (or a mouse).
CHARLES DICUS--knife. This will help you trim that produce at Kroger's.
JOAN HEWITT--rock. Let this remind you of the movie idol you had in high school.
MARY FRAZIER--no-nod pills. You need something to keep you awake in Mr. Gora's study hall.
BOB HAMMONS--taxi. Trying lending this instead of your Mercury.
EVELYN FELLER--new sweater. You can wear this one instead of that Roosevelt one.
SAM JOHNSON--red paint. All you've had is "Gray" for a while. Try this for a change.
JUDY MUDGE--safety belt. We hope this will make you feel safer when you ride with Dan.
PAT BROWER--baseball mitt. Use this to catch with on your softball team and may I add that I hope you'll be able to "catch-her."
PAULINE STRUBLE, BETTY MAY, and SUE IRWIN--pad of white excuses. Now you won't have to tell your homeroom teachers so many "little white lies."
GENE DOERING--engagement ring. Here is one your mother can't take away.
WANDA ALDRIDGE--boy doll. Maybe you will have a steady beau now.
RALPH and ROGER HARPER--blue and a pink ribbon. Use these so we can tell you apart.
MARY TAYLOR--car. We hear this is the color you are really crazy about.
TERRY WHITFIELD--record of Cara Mia. Practice and maybe someday you'll be able to sing like this Whitfield.
BETTIE SIMPSON--sunbeam. This is for your radiant smile.
BUFORD HARMON--certificate. Here is a gift certificate to get a female panther tatooed on your other arm.
EILEEN SCHMAUS--stuffed glove. Hold this when Archie isn't around.
BOB STOUT--doll. Here is a doll of your own so you won't have to try to get everyone else's.
SHIRLEY STETLER--spark plug. We know you are the spark plug in Ted's life.
JOHN HEMPHILL--watch. Now there is no excuse for you to be late for Mr. Fry's chorus class.
JOHN STAFFORD--drawing pencil. May this help you in your career as a cartoonist.
RUTH ENGEL--degree from Max Factor. This degree is given to the only girl in the Senior class who can look beautiful without makeup.
PHIL ROFF--pitch pipe. Let's see you keep that guitar in tune.
PRUDY BRAINARD--bottle of peroxide. Now you can finish that job.
MAXINE BOND--stock. Best of luck with all your stocks and bonds in the future.
MILDRED CURTIS and JOE CARPENTER--gold ribbons. This symbolizes the theory that you have always used, "Silence is golden."
JERRY BOYD and MARV CHAPMAN--guiding angels. These will help you stay out of trouble.
BEVERLY DOWNS--a record. This is in case you ever run down.
KAY STREICHER--baseball bat. Maybe you can strike again to get your man.
MATTIE JACKSON JOHNSON--one-way ticket to Okinawa. Need we say more?
MIKE BROWN--inner tube. You may need this in the Navy.
DOROTHY KNOX--jar of water. You are always swimming so let's see you swim in this.
EDWIN ADAMS--YHS pin. We're glad you decided to come back and graduate with our great class.
MARJORIE JOKUBAITIS--book on Navy lore. We hear you are quite interested in the Navy.
GWENDOLYN THOMAS--Sunday paper. Maybe this will help cut down on Doug's expenses.
PAT JONES--test tube. We hear you are quite interested in laboratory technicians. Maybe this will help you make a big hit with him.
DELORISE ARTHUR and MICKEY CRAMPTON--ears. Here are some Mickey Mouse ears to go with your nicknames.
LOU ANN GRAUBNER--parking permit for the U. of M. We know you and Dave will be able to use this.
MARY SZEKERES--fishing tackle. Now you can hook a man legally.
SHIRLEY GIBSON--handcuffs. Maybe these will help you hang on to Dave.
BOB BORKE--spittoon. We hear this is something you can really use.
DONNA DUNLAP--year's subscription to "Pig Raisers Digest." Maybe this will help you in your business.
MARIANNE CUMMINGS--box of tacks. This is to replenish the supply which has slowly disappeared during chorus class.
MARY GRAY--Johnson's wax. You are pretty good at handling Johnson's products.
DAVID WILSON--dog named Oscar. We couldn't get a real Oscar so here is a dog named Oscar given to you for the excellent job you did in the Senior play.
JAMES DAVIS--saddle. This is to go with those legs of yours.
BILL FISHBECK--bag of buckwheat seeds. We hope that someday you will have many little buckwheats.
BOB HOLDING and ROBERT BARNES--new cars. Use these, they look a little safer to us.

BETTY MIDDLETON--bottle of liniment. We hear you give a good massage.
EDDIE STRAYHORN--Dr. Scholle's foot powder. Those sand dunes near Traverse City are rough on the feet.
GLENDA WARREN--knife. Maybe this will help you be "Keene" all your life.
RICHARD JACOBSON--empty cradle. Did you rob this one, too?
DUANNE DIXON--material. Remember the "Peeping Tom" at your pajama party? This is to make some curtains for your basement windows.
MR. RITCHIE--Toni. This is to replace the curls you lost. Thanks for all the patient hours you have put in with us.

Class Will

Kathryn Wardrop

Time waits for no one. We, the Class of 1956, of Ypsilanti High School, have accumulated many earthly possessions during these four short and interesting years. Some are real and useful; others fancied and imaginary. To provide for these, our treasures, we must draw up a will.

We, the members of the Senior Class of 1956, of Ypsilanti High School, located in the city of Ypsilanti, county of Washtenaw, and State of Michigan, being of sound mind and memory, do make, ordain, declare, and acknowledge this to be our last will and testament.

To the Class of 1957 we leave the work, play, honor, and joys of being a Senior. We also leave you the dignity and responsibilities all Seniors must assume in order to create a well functioning class. Along with becoming a Senior comes the sole right of publishing the Senior Yearbook and producing the Senior Play; to no underclassmen are these rights and privileges granted.

To the Class of 1958, we bequeath the duty of looking up to the Seniors as examples to follow, and also the right to present the annual J-Hop.

We direct that all miscellaneous articles such as second-hand chewing gum, last year's Reader's Digest, lipstick, and so forth be placed on sale at public auction. The proceeds of which shall be left for the benefit of the Class of 1959. We recommend that the money be used to install a water pressure system which will pipe the water to the third floor fountains.

We leave to our successors our good will and most sincere wishes; to the faculty our respect and admiration. We advise that all grievances, disputes, petty jealousies, disloyalty, and unfairness be sold to the junk dealer and the proceeds used to beautify the grounds of Ypsi High.

We hereby consign all honors won by us in the course of our attendance at Ypsilanti High to the pages of our Senior Annual. We leave them with a sense of pride and with a certain feeling of regret that we have not the opportunity for enlarging and bettering their account.

To the citizens of Ypsilanti, who are in reality our parents, we leave our most sincere thanks and gratitude for the deep interest they have displayed in us and the willing counsel which they have extended. We can only begin to realize what they have done for us through their love and sacrifice, as we view our career in the light of understanding which Commencement brings. We know we shall always carry with us that from which we cannot part------ memories.

To our homeroom teachers: Mr. Lee, Mr. Waterman, Mr. Helvey, Miss Crothers, and Mr. Sinden we leave our sincere gratitude for their understanding and patience; and especially to Miss Iseminger our humble thanks for her direction of our Senior Play which was a great success.

To Mr. Paul Ritchie, our adviser, we leave our lasting love and gratitude for all the times he stood by us patiently, even when we blundered on alone, heedless of his words. We hope we leave with him not only the crises of our Senior year, but also some of the joys. To Mr. Ritchie we say, God Bless You.

We do hereby appoint Mr. Norris G. Wiltse, Mr. Alvin Joslyn, and Mr. Evart Ardis as executors of this, our last Will and Testament.
